I/ we certify that the above information is true and correct to the best of my/our knowledge. I/we realize that failure to provide all information requested or providing incorrect information could result in our application being invalid. An invalid application may be cause for discontinuing a project. I/we authorize Rebuilding Mid-Columbia to check any references, verify income and assets as necessary to complete the processing of this application for the purpose of receiving housing rehabilitation and repairs through RMC at no cost to me or my family. I/we also understand that any information RMC receives will be kept confidential and will be used strictly for determining my/our eligibility for this program. I further understand and agree to the following:

This is primarily a one-day project for selected Mid-Columbia homeowners.

A crew of 20-40 volunteers will do the work– both skilled and unskilled volunteers participate

We cannot guarantee that all the requested work will be done.

All able bodied residents or local family should volunteer to help along with the RMC volunteers and sponsors

Any pets will need to be removed from the home while work is being done.

Acceptance in the program is not guaranteed and is also subject to available volunteers and sponsors

May we share this application with other agencies for which you may also qualify?
